In Memoriam

DR. PAUL ADAM DEEMS

In the death of Dr. Paul Adam Deems '28, the student body, the School, and the dental profession suffered the loss of a man who was exceptionally dedicated in all the facets of his very numerous professional responsibilities. Born in Baltimore on September 16, 1900, Dr. Deems was educated in the public schools, graduating from City College in 1917. Having received the D.D.S. degree from the University of Maryland in 1928, he began in 1929 his first faculty affiliation that ended in 1947, when he resigned as Associate Professor in Dental Anatomy. In 1959 he rejoined the faculty as Instructor in Clinical Orthodontics. The Class of 1969 joins the members of 27 preceding classes in recognizing the excellent contributions made by Dr. Deems both as an effective teacher and as an inspiring member of the profession.

Dr. Deems held many offices, and the recording of these reflects the high esteem in which he was always held by his associates: President, Class of 1928; President, Gorgas Odontological Society; Deputy Councilor, Psi Omega Fraternity; President, Omicron Kappa Upsilon, Phi Chapter; President, Dental School Alumni Association; President, Baltimore City Dental Society; President, Washington-Baltimore Society of Orthodontists; President, Maryland Section of the American College of Dentists; Secretary-Treasurer, Middle Atlantic Society of Orthodontists; and Secretary, Maryland State Dental Association.

Dr. Paul Deems merited high praise as a person and as a teacher. The members of the Class of 1969 desire to express their deeply felt appreciation for the fine honor of having been privileged to know Dr. Deems.

Dedication

DR. WILBUR O. RAMSEY

Professor and Head

Department of Restorative Dentistry

The abilities of this knowledgeable man are as well known to the struggling freshman as they are to the graduating senior. Under Dr. Ramsey's capable leadership all students reap the benefits of a well-organized, industrious, and dedicated Division of Prosthodontics. In addition, he has organized and made functional the newly created Department of Restorative Dentistry.

Dr. Ramsey's devotion to dentistry and, more importantly, to dental education has prompted us to dedicate this yearbook as an expression of our appreciation. We hope that the integrity and dedication of this man will serve as emulative qualities by which we may pattern our professional lives.

Honorary Senior Class President

DR. MARK L. WAGNER

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF PEDODONTICS

Dr. Mark L. Wagner is an individual who has successfully combined ability as an educator with friendliness, personal equity and professionalism. We know and respect him as an instructor concerned with and dedicated to the dental student and the dental profession. His eagerness to be of service to the dental student at our University is well known and greatly appreciated.

Dr. Mark L. Wagner honors us by accepting the position of Honorary Senior Class President for 1969.

Senior Class Reflections

By September, 1965, 7,921 of our predecessors had been graduated from the University of Maryland School of Dentistry. The Class of 1969 was about to make the School its home for four years. Through the attrition of these memorable years, the original number of classmates declined to 91.

We've observed many changes at the B.C.D.S. Among these have been the institution of a freshman and sophomore clinical program; the termination of requirements and the beginning of team supervision; the retirement of several venerable teachers, along with the birth of teaching careers for many young, energetic idealists; the construction of a new school building and the obsolescence of the old one; the banning of fishing tackle boxes and the institution of Riley bags. We've presented skits titled "The Men from Plaque," "Sounds of Clinic," "A Man for All Lesions," and "B.C.B.S." We've also witnessed riots, patient cancellations, the Hong Kong flu, goldddd foils, and too many 8 o'clock lectures.

In reminiscing, it seems that we began dental school four centuries ago; yet time has passed by very quickly. Most of us have married since that September in 1965, and many of us now have children. Some of us are wondering what we are doing here and where we are going; others now know.

Now, we are about to receive our diplomas and go our separate directions. We publish this MIRROR to commemorate four amazing years. This is our yearbook, presenting the Class of 1969, a class the School will long remember.

What's Our Class Really Like?

The Staff of the 1969 MIRROR compiled the following facts concerning the Class of 1969:

The average graduate is 25.6 years of age, weighs 166 pounds, and is 5'11" tall. While in dental school, he gained 3.5 pounds.

Seventy-five per cent of the Class of 1969 are married, while the bachelors average 1.7 dates per week.

While being full-time students, 83% of the Senior Class moonlighted an average of 17.7 hours per week at an hourly wage of $3.20. Fifty-one per cent were employed as hospital laboratory technicians. Other occupations varied from research to bricklaying. This part-time employment contributed to the average annual income of $4,875.00 (including wife's income).

Although 75% of the Seniors had an average of 68% of their dental education paid for by their parents, 70% also found it necessary to borrow an average of $3,845.00 to finance their education and living expenses. Only 16% of the Senior students received partial scholarships averaging a total of $1,150.00 for four years.

The '69 graduate owns on the average 1.1 cars, with the average year model being a 1965 "clunker." Thirty-two per cent have ADA group life insurance. Only 20% of the class still smoke cigarettes, with 23% of the class having given up smoking while in dental school.

Eighty-four per cent said they would again study dentistry if they had the opportunity to start anew. Of the 16% who would have chosen another field, one-half would have entered medicine.

Eighty per cent of the Class of 1969 felt they received an adequate dental education, while an additional 12% felt they had received a superior dental education, leaving only 8% who did not feel that their education was adequate. They considered Gross Anatomy, Pathology, and Microbiology as the strong courses of their Basic Sciences Program; and considered Physiology as the weak Basic Science Course. Removable Prosthodontics was the overwhelming strong point of the Clinical Departments, with Periodontics and Pedodontics also considered as strong departments. However, Operative Dentistry, Fixed Prosthodontics and Orthodontics were considered as weak Clinical Departments.

As to our future, 60% now feel they will enter general practice after military service. Eight per cent consider Oral Surgery as their specialty, and 6% plan to specialize in each of the following specialties: Pedodontics, Orthodontics, Endodontics, or Prosthodontics, with a final 8% unable to decide.

It is the hope of the MIRROR Staff that these statistics will enable you to gain a better insight of the Class of 1969.

2. Of course I can't see — the light's on my head.
3. Let's see . . . Dr. Rankin on Thursday, Dr. Dosh on Monday, Wednesday . . .
4. You say you dropped your 8-unit ceramco bridge in the only cuspidor in the clinic without a filter?
5. It's called the one finger impression technique.
6. Well Ma'am, I'll tell you why they call me Quasimoto!

THE SENIORS

1. I don't care what you're feeling for, get those d--- clips off my nose!
2. Who?
3. Let go of my finger Ma'am! Please!
4. That's funny, my thumb is starting to tingle!
5. I'm a Senior; I don't have to look anymore.

Our metamorphosis is complete — since there are no unmarred teeth remaining in our dentoforms — look out patients! Yes, it's now real live "things" to treat, with nerves, vessels, and the ability to "not show" for appointments.

After being shifted from group to group, we have finally come to rest on the first floor. Here we are incorporating our basic science knowledge and clinical experience and finding it most rewarding.

National Boards have come and gone; and in keeping with tradition, we made an admirable showing. Could it be the first two years were learning years?

THE JUNIORS

1. I've heard of students using finger rests before, but this is ridiculous!
2. It's amazing what you can do with an Erector Set these days.
3. Can't understand why my back hurts!
4. Doctor, are you sure extracting 32 healthy teeth will enhance this patient's esthetics?
5. Oh my gosh, Endo's booked solid till next September!
6. Now I know where John G. gets all his information.

THE JUNIORS

1. There now, I don't think your cheek will be giving you any more trouble.
2. Boy, and I thought our stag was good!
3. . . . and then she said I'd better get out or she'd show me her Karate kick.
4. I use Dial; why doesn't this student?
5. No, I don't seem to have my nail clippers with me today, Doctor.
6. I may be a little overweight, but this chair back is ridiculous.

Words can ill convey the mixed emotions felt by the Sophomore Class. We are thankful for the innumerable bits of wisdom imparted to us by an outstanding faculty; we are exuberant that two strenuous years of dental education have elapsed since our arrival; we are simultaneously apprehensive, jubilant, and anxious over the prospects of entering the clinic; and we are saddened a little by the departure of some faculty members who have contributed much to our education.

The Sophomore Class has come to know adversity and disappointment; but more importantly we have learned to profit by error, to accept advice, and to begin to apply some of the principles of good dentistry.

For all these reasons and more, the Sophomore Class can most certainly say, "It has been a very good year."

1. . . . and now for our period of silent devotion.
2. For goodness sakes, I guess I did prepare the wrong arch!
3. Tessler, wake up!
4. How could Dr. Johnson possibly call that a match-stick prep?
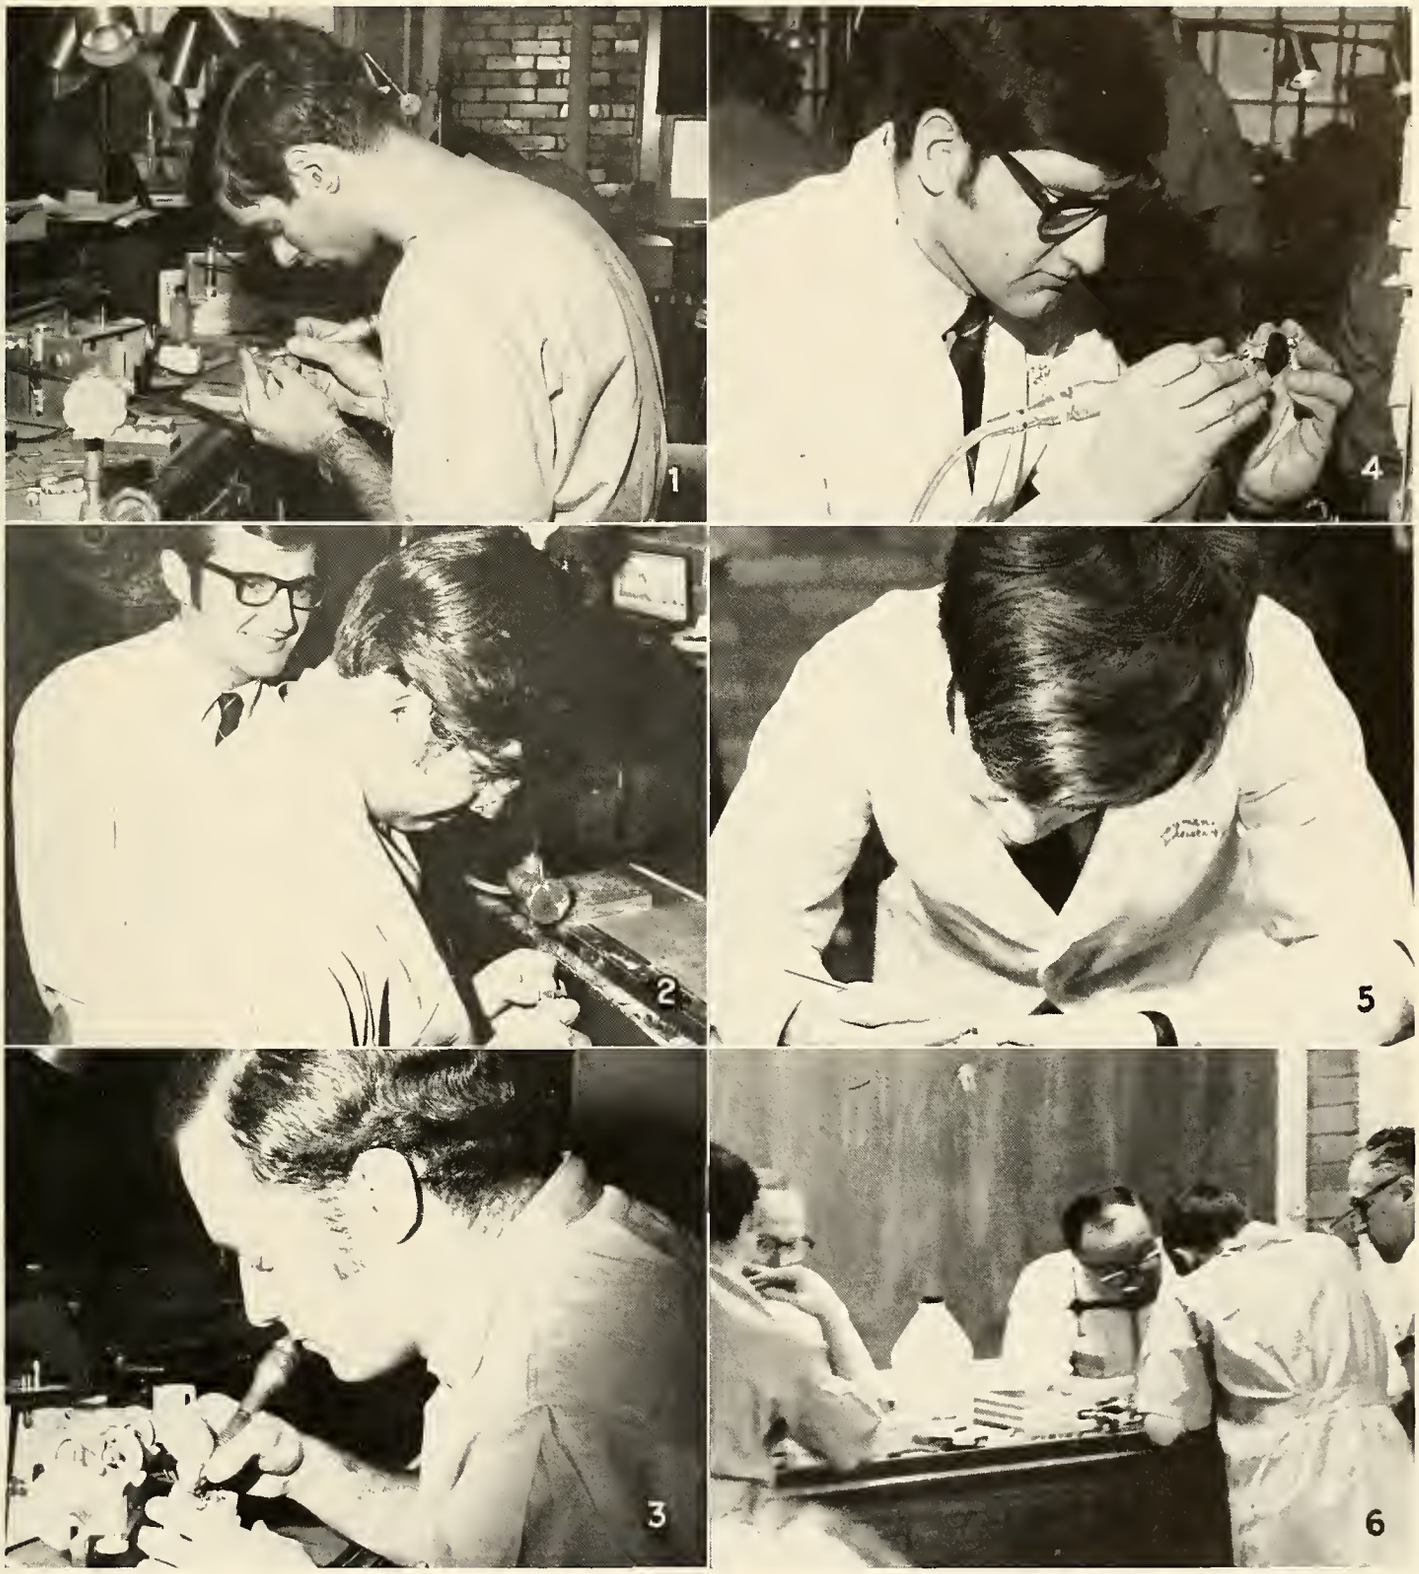
5. I think I just waxed this molar to the bench!

THE SOPHOMORES



1. Hey, this turbine really can zing through flesh.
2. You know, with those Granny glasses, you're kind of cute.
3. They say if you kiss it you'll have good luck!
4. I think I'll need another semester to finish polishing this.
5. Wonder why Dr. Jerbi asked me if my name was Miss Kaplis?
6. I'm not sure about that; you'd better ask Dr. Watson.

A strong core of highly spirited, enthusiastic intellectuals, separate in identity, yet united by a common bond of class unity and spirit, best describes the Freshman Class. Throughout the 1968-69 academic year, the Class of 1972 has attained near excellence in many of its endeavors, both academic and social.

Encompassed in a period of many changes, the Class of 1972 has shown the ability to accept and adjust most adequately to the alterations initiated. As with our predecessors, we anxiously await the completion and opening of the new Dental School.

Congratulations to the Graduating Class of 1969 and to the future dentists of B.C.D.S. — Best of luck!

THE FRESHMEN

1. Gentlemen, you look as though your minds are as blank as this screen.
2. Riley, how much longer do I have to stand behind here?
3. Did I hear you say "Ouch"?
4. Mr. Lowney, when are you going to get a haircut?
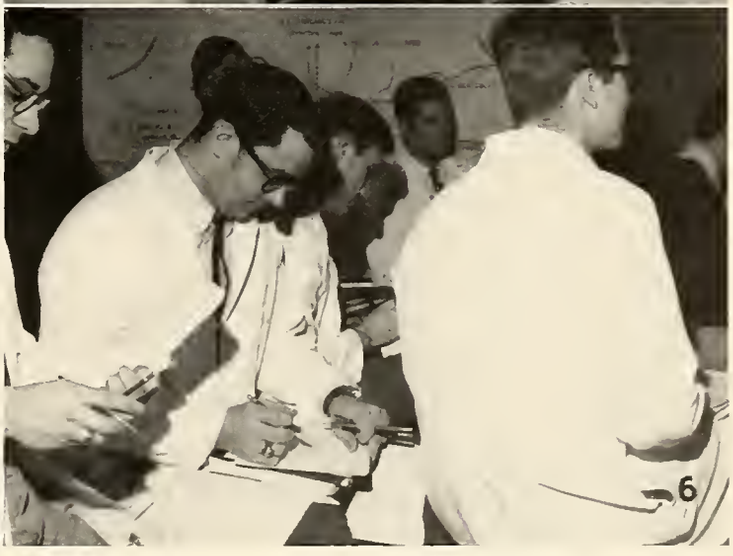
5. You're supposed to punch holes in the dam before you put it in his mouth, dummy!
6. That's funny, I don't seem to have any black lab gowns in my kit!

THE FRESHMEN



1. OK, so I'm taking a good look. I still don't see any teeth.
2. If he doesn't get his foot off my thigh, I'll scratch his eyes out!
3. Progress!
4. Oh no, not another student resignation!
5. Oh my God, I'm impaled!
6. Now watch me use all 8 pencils at once.

The University of Maryland Student Dental Association activity this school year has been concerned with the problem of student-faculty relations. Lunches with the Dean, coffee hours with the Faculty, and easily accessible channels of communication with the Administration have been firmly established. The Student Affairs Committee of the Faculty Council and the Executive Committee of the U.M.S.D.A. have dealt with faculty responsibility and student protection in an ethics system. In an effort to produce a workable document, the Executive Committee has formulated a Code of Ethics which, if approved, will begin functioning next fall.

Most effective of the U.M.S.D.A. activities has been the effort to properly organize the financial affairs of student funds. The Student Loan Fund and the MIRROR records have been audited, the class finances have been incorporated in a uniform bookkeeping system, and an accountant has been retained to audit the financial records of several student organizations. For the first time, U.M.S.D.A. has organized a student newspaper, The Reflector, for publication.

This year's faculty advisors are Dr. Frank C. Jerbi, Professional Advisor, and Dr. Joseph C. Biddix, Jr., Financial Advisor.

Gorgas Odontological Society

Established in 1916 as a scholastic honorary society for students of the B.C.D.S., The Gorgas Odontological Society perpetuates the name of a distinguished alumnus and pioneer in dental education, Dr. Ferdinand J. S. Gorgas.

To be eligible for membership, students must be in either the junior or senior year and have achieved standing in the upper third of their class.

Furtherance of knowledge pertinent to the profession, which is not available through the school curriculum, is the object of the monthly meetings. Senior members are presented with a certificate at the annual spring formal. The faculty advisor is Dr. José H. Diaz.

Aisenberg Research Society

The Aisenberg Research Society was founded on the belief that stimulating interest in dental research is necessary to the growth of our profession. Its membership is drawn from the students who have had research experience, especially in summer dental research, and those who show interest by giving scientific presentations.

A new program instituted this year is concerned with promoting interest in table clinic presentations. This will encompass the Baltimore Campus as well as local, state and regional dental meetings. The program will also provide an area in which the student may gain valuable experience in either basic science or clinical presentations, exchange ideas with other students and practitioners, and broaden the base of his general dental knowledge. Membership includes:

Richard P. Knotts, President
Thomas B. Fahey, Vice President
Edward P. Byrne
Thomas J. Egan
Charles J. Elfont
Harold H. Fagan
Timothy J. Flaherty
Gilbert J. Frey

American Society of Dentistry for Children

The Maryland Student Branch of the American Society of Dentistry for Children was formed in December, 1968. Its purposes are to create an interest in dental procedures with children, to enhance the ability of the general practitioner in his work with children, and to stimulate interest in pedodontics as a specialty. These purposes are fulfilled by means of monthly discussions with general practitioners and specialists from the Baltimore-Washington area. This organization is the newest on campus and has twenty-two charter members:

In Appreciation

Professor GARDNER P. H. FOLEY

The position of Faculty Advisor to THE MIRROR offers no additional financial reward or prestige. What it does entail is much thankless time and effort. It is with this thought in mind that we, THE 1969 MIRROR Staff, express our sincere appreciation to Professor Gardner P. H. Foley.

For more than thirty years Mr. Foley has been the Faculty Advisor to THE MIRROR. In this capacity he has strived to enlighten each year's staff concerning the workings of an annual publication. Through Mr. Foley's untiring efforts the quality of THE MIRROR has improved immeasurably over the years. Without his able assistance there would have been many incomplete and unpublished editions of the yearbook. Mr. Foley not only proofread each annual from cover to cover, but he also offered sound advice regarding business management, cover design, feature selection and layout technique.

We speak not only for ourselves, but for all past MIRROR staffs under your supervision, when we say, "Thank you, Mr. Foley, for your invaluable time, devotion and effort."

OUR NEW HOME

When our long-awaited new dental school building is completed in the early part of 1970, the University of Maryland will boast of one of the most progressive dental schools in the country.

The five-story building, with 288,000 square feet of space and provisions for two additional stories, will permit expansion of the entering class from 100 to 128 students, as well as provide space for training dental hygienists and dental assistants.

What will put the School in the forefront of dental education, however, are the curriculum changes that the new building will make possible. With 256 student cubicles, each junior and senior will have an office of his own where he may treat patients, assigned to him on a continuing basis, for all of their dental problems. All of these cubicles will be located on one floor. Kennedy Kits will be replaced by mobile cabinets. The central paging desk will be connected to an intercom in each cubicle, where students may also receive phone calls from patients.

There will be a special area for children including their own TV and walls for doodling, plus a "quiet room" for difficult pedodontic patients. Also planned is a clinic for the handicapped, having its own private entrance.

March, 1969

Freshmen and sophomores will be assigned their own laboratory space in which to do all of their lab work. They will concentrate first on mastering basic techniques and then on integrating all of the laboratory sciences within the framework of patient treatment.

Special rooms will be set aside for patient education in oral hygiene. Here, students will be aided by filmstrips, records, and pamphlets to demonstrate proper dental care. Among other innovations in the new building are: closed-circuit color television—to be used extensively to view interesting clinic cases or lectures, computers—to evaluate student progress as well as store patient information, and programmed teaching machines—for self-teaching.

The new building will permit a greater number of advanced education programs leading to master's and doctoral degrees, more postgraduate courses for dentists seeking eligibility to specialty boards, and more of the short continuation courses that practicing dentists need to keep informed about recent advances in dentistry.

As illustrated, our new building is making much progress since ground was broken on September 21, 1967,

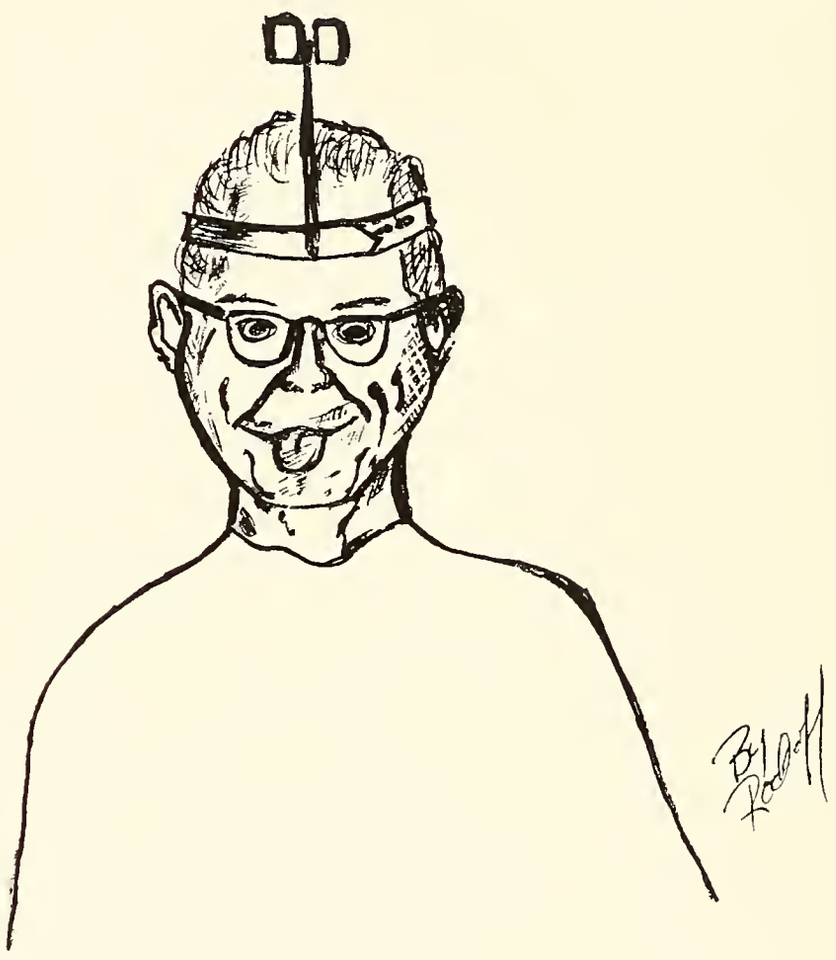
MIRROR INTERVIEW:

Dr. Ernest B. Nuttall



WORDS TO THE WISE FROM THE WISEST!

The following is a fictitious interview expressing the wisdom and wit of Dr. Ernest B. Nuttall, using actual quotes taken from his lectures.

Mirror: Dr. Nuttall, we are very pleased to have such a renowned operator and lecturer with us. To what do you accredit your fame as a lecturer?

Nuttall: Lectures are primarily for entertainment.

MIRROR: We hear you have discovered some of the problems with our system in the Operative Department.

NUTTALL: Yes, this isn't meant to be criticism, just fact. They cut preps to condense foil that could have been left alone for another 30 years, and their inlays are cement fillings with an island of gold.

MIRROR: As long as we are on the subject, what are some of our problems in crown and bridge?

NUTTALL: Our trouble is we have teepee operators who use the cone technique of abutment preparation. They have to use full coverage to cover up the teeth they mutilated, and their crowns end up fitting like boots on a rooster.

MIRROR: It is said that you do not believe that four-handed dentistry will be an answer to our shortage of dentists — is this true?

NUTTALL: This isn't meant to be criticism — four-handed dentistry has its place, but 2 of those hands just squirt air and water. Besides, most assistants couldn't pour - - - - out of a boot with the instructions on the toe and heel.

MIRROR: We've also heard it said that you think our present sterile techniques are inadequate.

NUTTALL: That's right; the student's instruments are dirty enough to gag a maggot. That's because putting them in their sterilizing dishes is like dipping them in sterile - - - -.

MIRROR: Tell us doctor, do you think that, like the medical profession, dentistry will soon be all specialties?

NUTTALL: God, I hope not; it's just a way of splitting up the graft. These specialists take refuge behind a limited practice and eventually they end up being too educated to work. The only real specialist is a dentist.

MIRROR: What are some of the shortcomings of dentistry today?

NUTTALL: Dentistry today is complicated by errors of commission — not omission. People should learn what not to touch; they end up taking out better dentistry than they can redo. They have to hurry and get the appliance in before Nature corrects the problem.

MIRROR: Then are dentists doing a service to their patients?

NUTTALL: You want to save your teeth, stay away from dentists. Sometimes they have successful treatment despite what they do — not because of it. Dentistry is nothing but trained, organized common sense; and its caloric output is only ½ cal. minute above sleep. Our only hope of success is with the Grace of God and leukocytes.

OOOO

MRS MILLER, IT WAS A PLEASURE USING YOUR FACILITIES.

The New Dental Student

Through a crash eugenics program sponsored by the Department of Community Dentistry, there has been developed a new breed of prospective dental student, who will alleviate the dental manpower shortage.

Although the reasoning capacity of this "dental wonder" has been reduced, it is not expected to hinder in any size, shape or form the performance of the four hands and twenty fingers during routine "drilling and filling."

As illustrated, he is fully equipped with antennae sensitive to the slightest decalcification of tooth structure and a periodontal probe which detects any incipient periodontal pathology.

Things to look forward to . . .

The trust in a little girl's eyes. Added years of health for an old man. A youngster who's no longer afraid . . .

People you'll help in your new career—things to be proud of—the reason, really, you've chosen dentistry as your life.

Great to contribute so much to so many! And even greater to think of the years ahead—years in which your work, and the way you do it, will be vital to more people than you can imagine.

As the years roll by, our job will be in helping you perform this increasingly complex work. In doing our part, we'll get involved in such things as basic research, product cost control, safeguarding your equipment investment, better office design, work simplification, effective use of auxiliary personnel, service excellence and availability.

It all boils down to one thing: we'd like to help you provide better dentistry for more people. That's pretty important to everyone. Good luck in your new career, Doctor!
